Д-С, Д-С. FREE NATIONS LEAGUE

APPEAL OF THE
FREE NATIONS LEAGUE
TO ALL PEOPLE OF GOODWILL!

We strongly oppose the free world turning a blind eye to the crimes of Putin's regime in Ukraine and Russia!

For three years, Putin has been destroying hundreds of thousands of people and peaceful cities with impunity! He brings genocide, war crimes, mass murders, public executions, and repression to our world!

If today we close our eyes to this evil and shake his hand, tomorrow our world will come to an end! In this world, the executioner will shift the blame to his victim. Evil will be equated with good!

We are against reconciliation with a murderer and a criminal! Putin's goal is to destroy the world of justice and rights! And we will not tolerate this!

We are against justifying evil, the destruction of entire peoples, executions, and the persecution of the dissenters!

We call on you to take to the streets of our free cities on February 24 and say 'no' to the genocide of the Ukrainian people! Say 'no' to Putin's fascist regime!

Come out with a sign: 'Russian occupiers, get out of Ukraine!' Send your photos from the picket with the poster to: lfn.feedback@gmail.com

We will publish a selection of photos from the actions of the participants and supporters of the League
